Local Rustlings.

The weather is mild and pleasant as a May morning.

The hunters are out, banging away at the pigeons.

A new walk is being put down in front of the Cerrillos House.

Fifteen inches of snow fell at Palmer Lake, Colo., on Tuesday.

New York metal markets quote bar silver at 96½ and lead at $4.20.

There are about 1500 more dogs in Cerrillos that had better be dead than mad.

Hon. C. F. Easley, land attorney, now has an office up stairs in the Jones block.

C. W. Uptegrove has ordered a stock of new goods which are now coming in.

A small package was recently left at this office, which the owner can have on application.

S. C. Wright, of Golden, has a notice of forfeiture beginning publication with this issue.

There is no news as yet, from the Santa Fe election contest cases being argued at Washington.

A rich strike is reported this week in the Stephenson-Bennett mine, in the Organ mountains.

Some of our people are talking about going to the petrified forest for a picnic, the first day of May.

A game of base ball is to be played tomorrow afternoon between the fats and leans of Cerrillos.

All legal land publications must be made in the newspaper published nearest the location of the land.

People say that the narrow gauge road will be extended from Santa Fe to Cerrillos this summer. Hope so.

The Odd Fellow's lodges are getting ready to celebrate the anniversary of the founding of the Order in America.

The missionary entertainment at the M. E. Church last Sunday night was very nice. Some say, "the best yet."

Another week and the high license law will be in force. Cerrillos will likely retain its present number of saloons, five.

How about our public schools? It is getting to be time that a little evidence of effort should appear. By the time the first month's salary of teachers would become due, our own precinct's resources should be sufficient to easily meet all expenses.

It is always best to try to look upon the bright side. The dark clouds will often enough obscure the vision without searching for them with a telescope.

The three or four remaining cases of small pox taken from the adobe flat, to which the first case was brought from Albuquerque, are all reported as nicely recovering.

Hon. A. Staab has handed in his resignation as member of the board of county commissioners, and F. W. Clancy, of Santa Fe, has been appointed in his place by Gov. Prince.

C. A. Whitely, the Cerrillos Jeweler, now has a neat room in front, up stairs in the Jones block, where he will be pleased to have you bring your work. Good work and reasonable prices guaranteed.

Cerrillos an incorporated city, with two railroads, large smelters, surrounded with every evidence of active industry brought about by the development of great mineral resources, is a picture pleasant to contemplate.

The Rio Grande river has cut a new channel around the bridge at Los Lunas, rendering the structure useless for crossing. The Rio Grande is wild and woolly when it gets full, and don't care very much where it goes.

New Goods just in at Sugar's and more arriving daily. Spring styles in Dry Goods and ladies hats. Stock of boots, shoes and groceries, fresh, large and complete. Prices to meet all competition. Call at the store in the new Jones block for satisfactory bargains.

The business of the Mine Exchange Company is increasing rapidly. All parties who have mines for sale, will do well to call early in order to have them noticed in their list which will soon be distributed in the Eastern cities.

The Democrat says R. W. Anderson, of the CERRILLOS RUSTLER, was looking around Albuquerque Wednesday. Some mistake. The handle is wrong, besides the RUSTLER Anderson has been at home all week, closely figuring on profit and loss.

It is rumored that construction will be resumed at an early day on the New Mexico railway, and the line completed from Eddy, New Mexico up the Hondo and Bonita valley to San Pedro. The line was built last year from Pecos City to Eddy.—Engineering News.

There is considerable comment over the resolution passed by the county board to refund the Texas, Santa Fe and Northern bonds. The feeling down this way is pretty generally expressed that if one of the conditions is the extension at once of the road to Cerrillos, "Barkus is willing,"—if not, they should not be funded into anything but waste paper.

The new time card which goes into effect Sunday, is not agreeable by any means, to the people here. The passenger trains virtually all go through in the night, those west at 10:30 p. m. and 1:05 a. m., and east at 3:10 and 5:43 a. m. As the road has been changing time however about once a month, it is to be hoped the present schedule will be short lived.

Quite an excitement prevailed on the streets yesterday afternoon occasioned by a dog supposed to have hydrophobia. The animal was observed running the streets and biting everything that came in its way. Men ran for guns and a regular cannonade was soon begun, and the dog finally dispatched. Three or four other dogs which he had bitten were also killed. On his run he bit a calf and a heifer belonging to Judge Harkness.

R. P. Conger brought in another gold brick Tuesday from the St. Lazarus mill, about $900—the result of six days run. Mr. Conger stated that he could have increased this considerably by making a thorough cleanup of the mill, which was not done on account of scarcity of time. The $900 brick was the clean-up from medium and low grade ore. Richer ore will be run next week. The company paid off on Monday of this week.

The Pueblo smelters claim to receive over 3,000 tons a month of lead ores from Socorro and the Magdalenas. The Billings smelter at Socorro does not want these ores because it has plenty of the same class of its own. Cerrillos would be a much nearer and cheaper point to treat these ores than Pueblo, and this furnishes another link in the long chain of evidence confirming this the best location for smelters now open in the country.

A report of the the Santa Fe Copper Co.'s mines at San Pedro, for the first month's work as published in the New York Mining Journal, is as follows: "Forty tons per day being treated, it was demonstrated that the ore from the dumps could be raised from 2 per cent. to 10 per cent. and 11 per cent. One of the results most highly prized is the retention in the concentrates of certain elements which act as a flux when the ore is smelted. The furnace has been running for the month, and with the following result, as reported by Wm. Kemp, the company's metallurgist:

"During the month of March we smelted 378.2 tons of ore from the old stock and 412.10 tons from the new stock and 100.93 tons of concentrates less 10 per cent. moisture, making a total of 881.10 tons. The ore averaged 7.70 per cent. copper. The new ore averaged 11.80 per cent. and concentrates 9.20 per cent.; 139.1 tons of coke, 61.56 tons of iron ore and 81.17 tons of limestone were consumed. The per cent of coke was 15.80 on the copper ore smelted. This could have been considerably reduced had the furnace been smelting day and night. The consumption of both coke and iron ore was considerably reduced under the past smelting, and at the present writing we are using no iron as a flux. When smelting continuously the ore can be treated with 13.50 per cent. coke. Three days was lost on account of water jackets leaking. We produced twenty tons of fine dust during the month, which will be made into bricks at a cost of 75 cents per ton, and re-smelted. There has been considerable loss of copper in slags. To remedy this a stationary receiver has been erected on the Herreshoff plan. To get satisfactory results the furnaces should run night and day. With the large furnace running two shifts the smelting can be done for less than $3.50 per ton."

The matte runs from 60 to 63 per cent copper and is shipped to the New Jersey refining works for treatment. The output during the month was about 150,000 pounds of fine copper. The latest advices from the mine are that a two foot body of ore, which makes great promise, has been struck in the north end of the property. The work of development and production will be continued. A meeting of the leading stockholders will be held in Boston this week to discuss the progress made, and devise means to enlarge the equipment, and in other ways place the property on a permanent working basis.

Married, on Saturday evening, April 18th, 1891, by Judge A. L. Kendall, Nicholas Salas and Vincinta Lujan, all of Cerrillos.

A letter from W. Sanborn requests us to mail his paper to Clifton, Arizona. He states that he is doing well and likes the place.

J. W. Akers, of Santa Fe, has begun a new deal with a full box—been done gone and got married. Miss Nora Miera is the happy and fortunate lady.

R. G. McDonald, wholesale liquor and cigar dealer of Las Vegas, and owner of mining property at Dolores and Golden, is on a business round in this part of the territory.

Mr. G. E. Hosmer, of the Springer Banner, spent a day or two among our mines and people this week. He is enjoying an earned vacation after long and close application to business in the Banner office.

Mr. Carl Freschl, president of the Kalamazoo Knitting Co., of Milwaukee, and a stockholder of the St. Lazarus Gold Mining company, is a visitor here and at San Pedro. While here he called on the Mine Exchange Co., and we hope to see his investments in this truly wonderful mineral section largely increased.

Mrs. A. Staab and daughters, of Santa Fe, will leave during the coming month for New York and will extend their trip to Europe; passage has already been engaged by them on the steamer Werra, sailing from New York on May 27th next. The ladies will be absent during the coming summer, and will extend the trip through continental Europe.

Edward H. Hart, died in Cerrillos on last Friday evening, April 17th, 1891, and was buried that night. He was a member of the Masonic lodge of Cerrillos. He was a stone mason by trade. He leaves a wife and five children, four of whom are just recovering from the loathsome disease that carried him off. The oldest son, Earnest, is at work in the mines in Colorado. Such a death and its surroundings are particularly sad, and the sympathies of the community are deep and sincere.

If you want a nice hat, go to Mrs. Doyle's.

Miss Bessie Sugar received from her brother, L. D. Sugar this week, a box of orange blossoms and among them a small limb containing buds, bloom and a large ripe, seedless orange. The blooms were fresh and fragrant when received and furnished button-hole bouquets for a number of favored friends. Mr. Sugar writes that California, from the border to Los Angeles, at which latter place he had arrived when writing, was overdone and desperately hard up, that large business houses which a few years ago would have rented for hundreds of dollars in Los Angeles, could now be had at the tenant's own price, and that many people were met everywhere unable to make a living. He added that he was thankful to know that New Mexico was much better off.

Butter, eggs, cheese, etc., in large quantities, is now being received by C. A. Marsh & Co., and handled on small commission. This is a pointer to buyers.
